President's Message: Janet Strong

I am still in a state of being alternately excited and petrified about being your president. By the time you read this the first board meeting will have been held and direction given to officers and committee chairs.

My theme for the year is "Relationships." With this theme I hope we can accomplish a lot.

During his Friday night banquet speech at the end of the October conference Governor Evans challenged us to work with our local legislators to lobby for local flexibility in funding. The ILA membership had already passed a resolution to do that this year and to keep membership informed of the activities. The Legislative Committee has already agreed to work on that issue and as part of that activity, we hope to publish a legislative newsletter.

Since an important relationship is the professional and collegial relationship of librarians, one goal is to raise membership by 10 percent. I also plan to continue the work begun last year to strengthen the relationship of ILA and IEMA.

We need to honor those people active in the Association who have contributed to the welfare of libraries in Idaho. This year there were no nominations for Librarian or Trustee of the year. Surely we are not that poor in qualified people in this state. Don Hampton of the Lewiston Public Library is chairman of the Awards Committee. Send your nominations to him: NOW.

The Trustees Division is already hard at work on the October 1986 conference to be held in Coeur d'Alene. Some exciting speakers have been contacted and workshops are already in the planning stages.

I perceive the officers of ILA to be resource people for the libraries of the state. As resource people they can be called on for workshops or advice. I also hope in a more formal way to offer some mini workshops at the spring ILA Board meeting that area librarians may take advantage of (wherever that might be).

There are still committee assignments that need to be made. If you are feeling left out and want to know what is going on in the Association, there is no better way to get involved than to be part of an active committee. A few people cannot carry the activities of the association alone.

I am looking forward to an exciting year for the Association and with the support I felt at the conference I know it will be a good one.

Guidelines For Authors

The editors of the Idaho Librarian welcome letters and manuscripts. Please follow these guidelines when preparing your submissions.

1. Letters and manuscripts should be typed and double-spaced on 8½" by 11" uncoated paper (no erasable bond, no clay-coated photocopy paper). Please type on one side only.

2. On the first page, start typing about ⅓ to ½ way down the page. This gives us room to include our instructions to the printer at the beginning of the article.

3. Use wide margins; 1¼" to 1½" is not too wide.

4. Please type your name, job title, Idaho Library Association affiliation, phone number, and address on the last page of your manuscript.

5. Photographs must be black and white on glossy paper.

6. The Chicago Manual of Style, 13th edition, is our style book. Please consult it if you have any questions about the mechanics of writing or preparing your manuscript.

7. Send your letters and manuscripts to the editor at Moscow.

President's Message:

Janet Strong

By the time you read this In April the Legislature will have adjourned, the legislators decamped, and we will be trying to assess the impact of the 1986 legislative session. As I am writing this in February it appears that the bill allowing local option taxes will not pass which means another year of reduced revenues for municipalities (and libraries).

The actions of the Legislature have caused me to ponder the important relationship of libraries to the Legislature. It is the Legislature that sets limits on the revenue available to spend on basic services. Because that relationship is so important, I urge each of you to be involved in this fall's elections at all levels from the precinct caucuses through the campaigns. We should study the records of the candidates and then actively work for those who support education and libraries. This involvement is crucial for the well-being of the people we serve as well as for library service in Idaho.

Our interaction with our patrons is an important relationship and our work to assure that there will be libraries for them to use is essential. Once the legislators are elected, it is critical that we educate them as to the vital role of libraries in the communities they serve. It takes constant effort to carry our message to the legislators. Those who attended the legislative lunches held around the state last year are more aware of libraries and are beginning to recognize that we have something to offer. The legislative brunch organized by the ILA Legislative Committee and held on February 7 was successful. About forty legislators attended as well as librarians and trustees from various areas of the state who were there to urge them to support local option taxes. This constant effort is like using the Chinese water torture to get someone's attention. We cannot let up; we must keep dripping away with letters, telephone calls, and individual contacts. A few people cannot do it—it takes all of us.

Another major issue, and one that was unforeseen, is the fate of library districts. If Senate Bill 1315 passes, all library districts in the state will exist subject to electoral dissolution at any time. This uncertainty will prevent any firm long-range planning. This bill was proposed as a restriction to the financial impact of the new Ada County Free Library District on some large property owners. Instead of a bill that attacks library districts, the solution to the problem lies in tax and election reforms, an issue the Legislature either cannot or will not address. We hope this bill does not pass.

On a more positive note: conference plans are progressing well. Some dynamite speakers are lined up as you will read elsewhere in this issue. We are looking forward to having a great conference in Coeur d'Alene in October.

PNLA Report

During the annual meeting of PNLA in Eugene, Oregon, in August, 1985, the membership voted for a reorganization of the PNLA structure which included the dissolving of the divisions; in their place, interest groups and committees are being organized. Surveys were mailed to all PNLA members in January, 1986, to ascertain which groups would have at least five members committed to actually supporting that group. The results of the surveys will be released later this spring. Audrey Kolb, Second Vice-president, will be in charge of the 1986 conference programs. The 1986 conference will be held in Vancouver, British Columbia, August 13-15. Be aware that EXpo '86 will be held in Vancouver from May through September, 1986. If you are planning to attend PNLA, contact your travel agent soon.

CONFERENCE

PNLA will have a preconference sponsored by the British Columbia Library Trustee Association; the WILL program on library leadership will have Alice Ehrig, Don Meadows, and Peter Woodbridge as the presenters. This will be held August 13 and 14, 1986 in Vancouver, BC. A treat is in store for all who attend the annual PNLA conference this year; the evening of August 14th has been designated as EXpo '86-PNLA Night with a special ride in a double-decker bus from downtown to the EXpo site.

Registration forms for those who are not members of PNLA are available from Betty J. Holbrook, 812 E. Clark, Pocatello, ID 83201. Pre-registration for members will be $40.00, non-members will pay $55.00. Present predictions are that the exchange rate will be 40 percent by the time of the conference, or $1.40 Canadian to $1.00 American.

In November, 1985, the PNLA Board voted to hold a joint conference with ILA in August, 1989.

PEOPLE

Richard B. Engen, Director of Alaska State Library has announced his retirement effective May 31, 1986. He has been in Alaska since 1967.

Rod Swartz, Washington State Librarian since 1975, died in February.

COOPERATIVE EFFORTS

Idaho State Library and Parmly Billings Library (MT) have entered into preliminary discussions on the possibility of a cooperative collection development for last copy fiction depository.

Reciprocal borrowing privileges have been extended across county and state lines in Washington and Oregon, including six counties.

The 1986 Montana Library Association conference in Kalispell, which will be held April 30-May 3, 1986, at the Outlaw Inn, has extended an invitation to Idahoans, especially those in the northern part of the state, to attend. State and local government expenditures on public libraries

State and local governments spent more than $2 billion on public libraries in fiscal year 1982-83, according to the Center for Statistics. This amounts to about $9.46 per person and represents less than one-half of one percent (0.39 percent) of total state and local general government expenditures for 1982-83.

States vary considerably in the amount they spend on public libraries, ranging from a high of $279.1 million in California to a low of $3.6 million in Vermont. These state expenditure figures, however, need to be considered in light of the size and population of the individual states.

Public library expenditures per person are highest in Alaska at $31.32, the District of Columbia at $23.44, Wyoming at $17.70, and Washington at $17.53 (figure 1).

When expressed as a percentage of total state and local general expenditures, the highest public library fiscal effort was in Connecticut at 0.63 percent, Maryland at 0.57 percent, and Iowa at 0.56 percent (figure 2).

Arkansas, Georgia, Mississippi, Pennsylvania, and Tennessee fell into the lowest category on both expenditure per person and expenditure as a share of total state and local expenditure.

Public Library Expenditures, Amount, Amount per Capita, and as a Percentage of Total Sales and Local Government Expenditures—for the Nation and Pacific Northwest States, 1982-83.
